

Unto All of Us

Words and Music by Jonathan Snow Carpenter

We are the ones who have fallen
We are the ones who have failed
We are the ones who are desperate to be rescued from ourselves
We are the ones who are broken
Battered and bruised from our lives
We are the ones who need mercy from a holy sacrifice

Unto all of us... the saints and the sinners
To all of us... the losers and winners
To all of us... Jesus has come for
All of us... for all of us... for all of us... for all of us

We are the ones He has chosen
We are the ones He has called
We are the ones who proclaim the truth that Jesus Christ is Lord
We are the ones who sing praises
And lift our hands high to the King
We are the ones who have nothing yet we give Him everything

Unto all of us... the saints and the sinners
To all of us... the losers and winners
To all of us... Jesus has come for
All of us... for all of us

We are the sheep that the Shepherd longs to claim
We are the children this Child has come to save

Unto all of us... the saints and the sinners
To all of us... the losers and winners
To all of us... Jesus has come for
All of us...

Unto all of us... the saints and the sinners
To all of us... the losers and winners
To all of us... Jesus has come for
All of us... for all of us... for all of us... for all of us
